The Taste: A Festival of Food canceled for 2020

Formerly known as Taste of Bixby, the event will return in 2021.

BIXBY, OKLA. (July, 2020) – The Taste: A Festival of Food has been canceled. The event, which had been rescheduled for its thirteenth year on September 10, 2020, will return in May of 2021.

The Taste is organized by the Bixby Metro Chamber of Commerce. In consideration of issues surrounding rising COVID-19 numbers, the Board of Directors made the difficult decision to cancel this year's festival.

"The Taste is a favorite event of our members and our community. We enjoy bringing people together every year to sample delicious food, come together to celebrate who we are as a community, and bring exposure to our many restaurants and other small businesses. This decision is made in order to keep our community safe and healthy, and we hope we are in a much better place next spring," Krystal Crockett, President and CEO of the Bixby Metro Chamber of Commerce.
